My dear Mr Forman

I beg to thank you for your kind letter, and its contents. I should have answered you before, but I have not been quite well, July and August are most trying months in Madrid, and change of air as you may imagine, are too expensive for us.

I thank you most warmly for your friendly sentiments towards Mr Lewis. I am convinced you have done all in your power to serve him, and you have only to tell him this in your own kind manner, and thus close our correspondence.

I trust the health of your little girl has improved.

With kindest regards, allow me to remain
Very sincerely Yours

My dear Mr Germain

The subject of my letter will no doubt surprise, and grieve you, as you may be sure that circumstances must be very pressing, for me to have determined upon selling my poor £180 of the Queensland Stock. Can this be done immediately without much loss, and inconvenience to yourself, for I have already annoyed you too much with my trifling affairs

I trust upon your kindness to forgive me. My love to your wife, and believe me to remain

Yours very sincerely
Tancy Kents de Lemos

Has your little girl improved in health?
